

I won't fall down

Killing my feet so if you take my wish
You will reside in a corner alone
You will be blind with a taste of your own
I won't fall down

Killing my knees so if you take my soul
You will be killed by the strength of my heart
You will be thrown in a darkest hole
I won't fall down

Killing my hands so if you take my breath
You will survive in the deepest sea
You will cry for the sake of your pain
I won't fall down

Into the light we walk
Blessing our tears
Into the walls we build
Leaving our fears
Into the breath we fill
Life we heal
